Please note that cargo has to be withdrawn within the time provided for in the Carrier's tariffs (Clause ii of the bill of lading terms and conditions).
The Carrier shall be under no liability whatsoever for loss or damage to cargo that may arise after discharge.

Please make immediate arrangements to collect your cargo and pay the storage and demurrage charges due on the containers.

We hereby notify you that we have fulfilled all our obligations under the terms of the bill of lading. Your company has the obligation to take delivery of the cargo, failure to do so will entitle the Carrier to take whatever actions it deems necessary to mitigate its loss including but not limited to the exercise of its lien right on the cargo.

We await your reply by return.
