Please refer to OOCL.com page for how to make demurrage charge payments.

Please be aware that ACH and wire transactions are dependent on your financial institutions processing time, which could result in payment clearance delay and additional demurrage fees. OOCL will acknowledge internally that monies have been received and posted into our system.

Please note: The charge shown on this notice may be an amount calculated based on the Clock End" status codes - Estimated (E) or Planned (P) or Interim (I). The final due amount will be accrued at the end of the actual container activity date. The charge and free time shown on this notice may be subject to an adjustment. If any charge dispute, please reach out to NADISPDD@oocl.com.

Pursuant to section 41104 (d)(2) of title 46, United States Code, Carrier confirms to the best of knowledge that (a) any demurrage or detention charges applicable to the relevant shipment(s) are consistent with any of the United States Federal Maritime Commission rules with respect to detention and demurrage, including (i) all provisions of part 545 of title 46, Code of Federal Regulations (or successor regulations) and (ii) all applicable provisions and regulations, including the principles of the final rule published on May 18, 2020 entitled "Interpretive Rule on Demurrage and Detention under the Shipping Act" (or successor rule).

Carrier confirms its performance did not cause or contribute to any underlying invoiced detention or demurrage charges.

Invoice is issued based on the billed party contracting with carrier for ocean transportation services.

All Detention and Demurrage invoices should be disputed in writing within 30 days of the issue date of the invoice. We will provide with an update on your dispute within 5 business days of receipt. Additional information or documentation required to support the charge mitigation, refund, waiver request, please refer to <https://www.oocl.com/usa/eng/localinformation/localnews/2020/Pages/2020May19.aspx>.
