

CMA CGM Operations in the Red Sea

December 22, 2023

Effective December 21, 2023

Dear Valued CMA CGM Customer,

In continued efforts to ensure the safety of our crew, vessels, and your cargo amid the ongoing developments in the Red Sea region, we would like to provide you with important information regarding the re-routing of several CMA CGM vessels from their intended route through the Red Sea to the Cape of Good Hope.

As highlighted in our previous Customer Advisories, the re-routing of these vessels is a precautionary measure taken to navigate away from potentially unsafe areas. During this time, we will implement a limited feeder service to Red Sea ports which will allow us to continue to service this high-risk area with as minimal disruption to supply chain operations as possible.

Accordingly, we hereby inform you that, effective immediately and until further notice, a RED SEA charge will apply to all cargo to and from Red Sea ports unless you decide to accomplish the Bill of Lading at the designated hub ports.

RED SEA Charge Details:

The charges are as follows:
