Please be advised, we were informed due to a shortage of specialized/skilled labor in the Ports of Los Angeles and Long Beach, the following terminals will be closed on the 1st shift today April 7, 2023:

West Basin Container Terminal (WBCT)

Later in the day, we should know if terminals were able to fill their labor requirements for 2nd shift Operations.

Demurrage and Detention free time will be adjusted accordingly due to these unexpected closures.

Please refer to the individual homepage of each terminal for more detailed gate operation information.

As soon as additional information becomes available, we will advise accordingly.
